DEDICATION

I dedicate this book to my mother, who taught me to love Jesus; to my father, who inspired me to use my talents for His glory; and to my husband, without whom I could not do what I do.

FOREWORD

“So he answered and said to me: ‘This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: “Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,” says the Lord of hosts’”
(Zechariah 4:6).

Evangelist Tamryn Klintworth is truly an anointed woman of God. She is consumed by a burning desire to see the lost world saved in the arms of Jesus. This of course is only possible “by My Spirit, says the Lord”, and this book reflects the fire of the Holy Spirit from every page. It is not just knowledge but temperature, as fire is always hot. Tamryn is so filled with this fire, that kind that all windows fog up when she enters a room. I highly recommend, “Spirit of Fire”.

– EVANGELIST REINHARD BONNKE

INTRODUCTION

“When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance”
(Acts 2:1-4).

It was our Jesus who spoke the words, “without Me you can do nothing” (John 15:5). This book is founded upon such a statement, every chapter focusing either on the baptism of the Holy Spirit or what the believer is able to achieve once they have been filled from on High. Without the Spirit of God, we are no threat to the kingdom of darkness. With Him however, we are battering rams against the gates of hell, regardless of age, race, gender, experience or education. There are many believers who do not understand how important it is to be filled with the Holy Spirit and hence are not. There are many who, although being filled with the Spirit, do not understand the gravity thereof. Not understanding and hence not cooperating with Him leaves them almost as ineffective as those not filled at all. The chapters that follow consist of my genuine attempt to iron out these misunderstandings, leaving you not only fire-filled but also fully aware of how to labour with your God to dramatically impact your world for Jesus.

When the Holy Spirit filled the first disciples (Acts 2:1-4), He resembled flames of fire, one settling upon each follower. On this occasion, God chose a fearsome natural element to represent His Spirit. Fire is dangerous. Fire is ravenous and relentless. If a blaze grows too large and too ferocious, no human innovation can get it under control. It is an element that will continue to burn until all fuel within its reach has been utterly consumed. Such is the picture our God would have us form in our minds when we think of the Holy Spirit. You see,

Without the Spirit of God, we are no threat to the kingdom of darkness. With Him however, we are battering rams against the gates of hell, regardless of age, race, gender, experience or education.

dear friend, if we allow Him to flow through us, He will consume sin, sickness and any oppression that might hold people in bondage. He shall set the captives free, left, right and centre. As a fire would be relentless in its task of consuming, so He will relentlessly use us if we but allow Him to do so. He is ever-ready and ever-eager to drive the children of God onwards, supplying the zeal and the power. We only need to cooperate with Him!

I see this time and time again at our crusades. From the moment the Gospel starts being preached, it is as if heaven has struck a match in the midst of the crowd. A fire begins to burn and spread. Not a natural fire, not any mere spiritual fire, but the Fire of fires, God Himself. That fire is nothing less than the Holy Spirit – the Spirit of God, the Spirit of Fire. Hearts are convinced that Jesus is Lord. Eager voices call on His matchless name.

As a fire would be relentless in its task of consuming, so He will relentlessly use us if we but allow Him to do so.

Demons scream. The lame walk. Blind eyes see. The chains of witchcraft shatter and addictions disintegrate in His wake. Such it should be, not only on the crusade ground, not only in the church, but on the streets and in the workplace. Dear believer, our Heavenly Father is desperately in need of you labouring with Him. You are part of His plan to spread the glorious Good News of salvation. He not only needs you but He desires to move through you. He is eager for you to share in the joy that floods His heart when a soul is saved or a bondage is broken. He is eager for your earthly life to have eternal impact. Wherever you are, dear believer, the works of Satan can be consumed and life, eternal life, left instead.

Dear believer, our Heavenly Father is desperately in need of you labouring with Him.
